Friends of the J. Paul Leonard Library

San Francisco State University

1630 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, California 94132

Friends have access to Library Annex I during all open hours and most services except: inter-library loans, holds on materials, Reserve Services.

During periods of high demand for specialized services, current SF State students/faculty have priority. Friends, like other library users, are responsible for any late, lost or damaged material fees that accrue as a result of access to library services. Friends must be at least 18 years old; high school students and younger do not have access.

Currently registered students and faculty/staff who have library privileges may treat this contribution as a charitable donation for tax purposes.

You may send this application with your check to: Friends of Leonard Library, (address above) or arrangements may be made in person through the Friends' Office in HSS 113 and at Distribution Services, HSS 102, during Library open hours.
